

Situated on the border with France & Germany— a metropolitan region with 1m inhabitants

The trinational region of the Upper Rhine is one of Europe's most thriving economic regions. When it comes to labour, specialists and access to the EU, Basel is best positioned to profit from its geographical position.

